Why Kara?

Kara coconut products are made with carefully handpicked fresh coconuts from our lush plantation in Sumatra, Indonesia. Our involvement from seeding right down to processing allows us to monitor product integrity closely and efficiently. This stringent control helps ensure that only the finest quality coconut products are being produced.

Freshly harvested coconuts are transported within 24 hours from our plantation to our factory. Upon paring, the coconuts are processed immediately within a short time span of 3 to 5 hours. This process help maintain the natural great flavour of fresh coconuts in all Kara products.

Besides Halal and Kosher certification, our processing plants are certified by world renowned independent quality certifying bodies. Accreditations include Food Safety System Certification (FSSC) 22000 and Social Accountability (SA) 8000.
